God's Faithfulness

Whenever I know I'm going to be with any of our grandchildren, I always stock my purse with snacks. Yes, things like pretzels, crackers, miniature marshmallows, and other treats. I love that they just expect them to be there—and if I'm not around, that Granddaddy should pick up the slack.

Time after time, God's grace has been there for us. Whenever we've needed it, He's been there to comfort our hearts when we're hurting. On countless occasions, He's provided for our needs, faithfully giving us what we needed—even when all we could see was a hopeless situation.

So why is it that the next time we find ourselves in a difficult situation, we immediately go to doom and doubt instead of saying, "Do you have anything for me?" and expecting that the God who'd been faithful in the past would do the same in the future? His promises remind us that He's a faithful God:

1) Deuteronomy 7:9

"Know therefore that the Lord your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations."

2) 2 Thessalonians 3:3

"But the Lord is faithful. He will establish you and guard you against the evil one."

3) Psalm 86:15

"But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness."

I want to remember those promises, and I want to be more like a little child—waiting without doubt because God's grace and provision are always available.
