A Heart of Thanksgiving

Giving Thanks for God's Many Blessings

Thanksgiving is more than a holiday filled with family, food, and fellowship. It is a time to pause and reflect on the goodness of God and the countless blessings He pours into our lives each day.

The Bible reminds us in 1 Thessalonians 5:18, "In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." (KJV)

Gratitude is easy when life is going well, but true thanksgiving comes from trusting God even during difficult seasons. We may not be thankful for every circumstance, but we can always be thankful that God is faithful, His love never fails, and His promises never change.

As we gather around our tables this Thanksgiving, may we remember that our greatest blessings are not the things we possess, but the love of our Savior, the gift of family and friends, and the hope we have in Jesus Christ.

This Thanksgiving, let us not only count our blessings but also be a blessing to others. A kind word, a helping hand, or a simple act of love can reflect the goodness of God to those around us.

May our hearts be filled with gratitude, our homes with love, and our lives with praise—not just on Thanksgiving Day, but every day of the year.

"O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever." — Psalm 107:1 (KJV)
